Merquinsa appoints Zylog Plastalloys to distribute in India its Pearlthane® & Pearlcoat® TPU specialty elastomers product ranges

Montmeló, Barcelona, Spain –February 10th, 2010

Merquinsa announced today the appointment of the Indian company Zylog Plastalloys as its distributor for Pearlthane® & Pearlcoat® TPU specialty product ranges in its aim to expand its presence in the Indian elastomers market.

Through Zylog Plastalloys, Merquinsa will offer its full portfolio of thermoplastic polyurethanes (TPU) elastomers for molding, extrusion, and calendering applications to serve its local and global customers in the country. The range will include Merquinsa's high performance polyester, polyether and copolymer TPU grades from 70 Shore A to 77 Shore D hardness, along with the renewable-sourced TPU Pearlthane® ECO grades recently developed and already being commercialized.

Zylog Plastalloys is a leading compounder; developing, manufacturing and selling a wide range of TPOs, TPEs and PP Compounds, primarily for the Indian automotive; also servicing agriculture, electronics, appliances, luggage and other such markets.

Zylog Plastalloys has been operating for over 25 years in the Indian market, servicing customers across the country with sales offices in New Delhi, Pune & Chennai. To find out more details about Zylog Plastalloys, visit its web site at www.zylogplastalloys.com or call at +91 20 2665 0220
